

Communion Service Presider

The Communion Service Presiders are a group of lay women and men who lead Communion Services on days when there is no Mass. The group serves regularly on Mondays, Tuesdays and Saturdays; and on any extra days when a Service is required.

Each service is conducted following a basic format. The Presiders are encouraged to modify this format as they wish. They provide a brief, and personal, reflection on the day's liturgy following the reading of the gospel.

Presiders need a desire to explore the Faith in an ongoing fashion, and to share it with those who attend the Services.
